THE AMERICAN ADVOCATE OF PEACE.

FOUNDED IN 1834.

1. Contains general articles by able men and women on all phases of the peace question.
2. Gives reports of the doings of the peace societies in this country and in Europe, and of the annual meetings of the Peace Congresses; also of religious bodies and other organizations.
3. Publishes the proceedings of the United States Congress and other parliaments bearing on the arbitration movement, and takes account of such other international relations as specially concern the peace reform.
4. A feature of special interest is its department "Among the Papers," which gives in a brief and readable form the progress of peace thought in the general press.
5. In addition to its editorials and editorial notes and comments on various phases of the peace question and other important subjects, it gives a condensed summary of leading current events, such as all cultivated people ought to be acquainted with.

Those wishing to keep themselves informed on the important and rapidly growing movement for peace and concord among the nations and different classes of society can not get along without a paper of this kind. It is the constant aim of the editor and the publishers of the AMERICAN ADVOCATE OF PEACE to make it the very best paper of this kind in the field.

The subscription price is $1.00 a year. Your subscription is solicited, and your influence with your friends in behalf of the paper and of the cause of peace.

CONSTITUTION OF THE AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be designated the "AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY."

ART. II. This Society, being founded on the principle that all war is contrary to the spirit of the gospel, shall have for its object to illustrate the inconsistency of war with Christianity, to show its baleful influence on all the great interests of mankind, and to devise means for insuring universal and permanent peace.

ART. III. Persons of every Christian denomination desirous of promoting peace on earth, and good-will towards men, may become members of this Society.

ART. IV. Every annual subscriber of two dollars shall be a member of this Society.

ART. V. The payment of twenty dollars at one time shall constitute any person a Life-member.

ART. VI. The chairman of each corresponding committee, the officers and delegates of every auxiliary contributing to the funds of this Society, and every minister of the gospel who preaches once a year on the subject of peace, and takes up a collection in behalf of the cause, shall be entitled to the privileges of regular members.

ART. VII. All contributors shall be entitled within the year to one-half the amount of their contributions in the publications of the Society.

ART. VIII. The Officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Auditor and a Board of Directors, consisting of not less than twenty members of the Society, including the President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be ex-officio members of the Board. All Officers shall hold their offices until their successors are appointed, and the Board of Directors shall have power to fill vacancies in any office of the Society. There shall be an Executive Committee of seven, consisting of the President, Secretary and five Directors to be chosen by the Board, which Committee shall, subject to the Board of Directors, have the entire control of the executive and financial affairs of the Society. Meetings of the Board of Directors or of the Executive Committee may be called by the President, the Secretary or two members of such body. The Society or the Board of Directors may invite persons of well known legal ability to act as Honorary Counsel.

ART. IX. The Society shall hold an annual meeting at such time and place as the Board of Directors may appoint, to receive their own and the Treasurer's report, to choose officers, and transact such other business as may come before them.

ART. X. The object of this Society shall never be changed; but the constitution may in other respects be altered, on recommendation of the Executive Committee, or of any ten members of the Society, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present at any regular meeting.

The Provident Life & Trust Co., OF PHILADELPHIA,

WAS ORGANIZED IN 1865 TO PROMOTE LIFE INSURANCE AMONGST FRIENDS AND OTHERS OF LIKE CAREFUL HABITS.

All of its Directors are members of the Society of Friends. It has never appeared in Court as a contestant of a Death Claim. It has never adopted a novel or speculative form of Insurance to attract business.

It has a Death Rate lower than that of any other Company.

It has also a very low Rate of Expense.

Low Death and Expense Rates result in low cost to the Insurer. Business in force over $90,000,000.

Its organization is the strongest, and its guarantee of future safe and successful management, is the greatest.

Completion of Pierce's Life of Sumner.

Memoir and Letters of Charles Sumner.

Volumes III (1845-1860), and IV (1860-1874). By EDWARD L. PIERCE. 8vo. Cloth. Uniform with Volumes I and II. With two portraits, $6.00. Half Calf, $10.00.

Mr. Pierce, as is well known, was designated in Mr. Sumner's will as one of his literary executors, and so in 1877 he began that work which he has now completed. An extremely conscientious writer and an ardent admirer of Mr. Sumner, he spared no pains in preparing the book, and read nearly all the forty thousand letters which Mr. Sumner left in his library—the sum total of nearly all that statesman's correspondence.

"Mr. Pierce modestly entitles his work a 'Memoir.' It is far, far more. It is, in the best sense of the word, a life history, and intermingled with it is very much of American history never before written and of the greatest value to the historical student. The work is, in effect, the political history of one of the most important eras in our country."—Boston Advertiser.
